

Mold

News about Mold, including commentary and archival articles published in The New York Times.

Chronology of Coverage

1. May. 10, 2015

Real Estate Q&A answers queries about doormen who refuse deliveries, rental broker's fee and mold remediation. MORE

2. Sep. 1, 2014

It doesn't take a flood to encourage the growth of mold in a home. A moist environment will do. A runny nose, coughing and all the rest typically follow. MORE

3. Dec. 17, 2013

New York City Housing Authority will deal more quickly and more thoroughly with mold in its apartments as part of an agreement by the Bloomberg administration to settle a federal lawsuit by people living in housing projects and coping with asthma; agreement covers all of the more than 400,000 tenants in city's public housing, and requires housing officials to recognize asthma as a disability. MORE

4. Jul. 23, 2013

Study published in World Mycotoxin Journal finds that aflatoxins, poisons produced by fungi that grow on moldy peanuts and corn, may be worsening Africa's AIDS epidemic by helping suppress immune systems of newly infected people. MORE

5. May. 8, 2013

Residents and advocates march through streets of Midland Beach neighborhood on Staten Island to demand more help from city to clean up mold, left behind after Hurricane Sandy; small demonstration coincides with release of survey detailing what residents say is an inadequate response by Bloomberg administration to help them remove mold from their homes. MORE

6. May. 5, 2013

Profile of Bill Sothern, founder of Microecologies, who has built a career on investigating and remediating environmental hazards like mold colonies and water damage at homes in New York

City. MORE

7. Apr. 18, 2013

Mysterious strain of downy mildew is killing one of home gardener's favorite annual flowers-- Impatiens walleriana--throughout United States and Canada, forcing those addicted to the plant to find an alternative. MORE

8. Mar. 2, 2013

Elected officials, health professionals and residents of waterlogged New York area communities are in midst of vigorous debate over how to best tackle problem of mold growth in homes flooded by Hurricane Sandy. MORE

9. Feb. 24, 2013

Photographer Ana Brigida has chronicled unattended repairs, mold and other poor conditions at buildings owned by the New York City Housing Authority in the South Bronx, the Lower East Side and Harlem. MORE

10. Nov. 20, 2012

Some of the illnesses that health experts feared could occur because of toxic substances unleashed by Hurricane Sandy have begun to manifest themselves; many people have been sickened by mold, oil, sewage, debris and dust left by the storm and are seeking medical care in ad hoc facilities around the New York region. MORE

11. Nov. 15, 2011

Some students from St Mary's College in Maryland, displaced by mold caused by Hurricane Irene are, spending the semester on the Sea Voyager, a cruise ship docked at the nearby waterfront; ship was converted to student housing after two dorms on the campus were shut down because of mold. MORE

There are no additional abstracts to display.

Selected Articles About Mold

How to Find and Eliminate Mold

By JAY ROMANO

So how do you know if you have mold in your house, and what do you do if you do?

October 2, 2005 realestateNews

The Dangers Of Mold In Homes

By JAY ROMANO

What many people do not know is that mold could be growing in their homes right now.

October 7, 2001 realestateNews
Court Rebuffs a Suit Linking Mold to Illness
 By JAY ROMANO

A recent court decision should allow building owners to rest a little easier about potential claims that indoor mold has injured an occupant.

October 15, 2006 realestateNews
How to Dry Out a Flooded House
 By JAY ROMANO

After the recent heavy rains caused significant flooding along the East Coast, many homeowners may find themselves dealing with damp, soggy homes and furnishings.

July 9, 2006 realestateNews
Mixed Signals on Mold
 By JAY ROMANO

A judge has rendered a pair of decisions that send a mixed signal to landlords, tenants and their lawyers about a landlord's liability for mold.

June 22, 2003 realestateNews
ARTICLES ABOUT MOLD
When Doormen Refuse Deliveries
 By RONDA KAYSEN

Answers to questions about doormen who refuse deliveries; a rental broker's fee; and mold remediation.

May 10, 2015, Sunday
 MORE ON MOLD AND: Real Estate and Housing (Residential) , Real Estate Brokers , Delivery Services , Doormen , Mold
Don't Catch What Ails Your House
 By JANE E. BRODY

It doesn't take a flood to encourage the growth of mold in a home. A moist environment will do. A runny nose, coughing and all the rest typically follow.

September 1, 2014, Monday
 MORE ON MOLD AND: Medicine and Health , Mold
Facing Suit, New York City Agrees to Remove Mold in Public Housing More Quickly
 By MIREYA NAVARRO

A planned settlement with the federal government is aimed at helping thousands of tenants suffering from asthma.

December 17, 2013, Tuesday
 MORE ON MOLD AND: Bloomberg, Michael R , Hurricane Sandy (2012) , New York City , Suits

and Litigation (Civil) , Manhattan, Together , Housing Authority (NYC) , South Bronx Churches , Natural Resources Defense Council , Asthma , Mold , Disabilities , National Center for Law and Economic Justice , Americans With Disabilities Act , Public and Subsidized Housing

Mold Toxins Tied to AIDS Epidemic

By DONALD G. McNEIL Jr

Aflatoxins, produced by mold on peanuts and corn, may be suppressing the immune system and worsening the AIDS epidemic in Africa.

July 23, 2013, Tuesday

MORE ON MOLD AND: Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome , Kenya , Mold , Africa , World Mycotoxin Journal

Mold After the Hurricane

A climate economist says the coastal flooding responsible for the mold that occurred after Sandy is only going to get worse with climate change.

May 17, 2013, Friday

MORE ON MOLD AND: Staten Island (NYC) , Hurricane Sandy (2012) , Mold , Global Warming

Amid Creeping Mold, Calls for City's Help

By CHRISTOPHER MAAG

Frustration remains, even though New York City has one of the most aggressive antimold programs in the country.

May 8, 2013, Wednesday

MORE ON MOLD AND: Mold , Hurricane Sandy (2012) , Real Estate and Housing (Residential) , Bloomberg, Michael R , Staten Island (NYC)

Mold, Come Out With Your Hands Up

By ROBIN FINN

Bill Sothern has built a career on investigating and remediating environmental hazards, including mold colonies, secondhand smoke, chemical vapors, lead and asbestos.

May 5, 2013, Sunday

MORE ON MOLD AND: Mold , Real Estate and Housing (Residential) , Asbestos , Sothern, Bill

A Pox on Your Flowers

By ANNE RAVER

Impatiens, a favorite of home gardeners, is under siege in the United States and Canada.

April 18, 2013, Thursday

MORE ON MOLD AND: Flowers and Plants , Mold , Gardens and Gardening

Where Germs Hide in Your Kitchen

By ANAHAD O'CONNOR

A new report found that some of the areas people considered most likely to be contaminated, like microwave keypads, were not, while some they had never thought of, like refrigerator water dispensers and the rubber gaskets on blenders, were among the...

April 12, 2013, Friday

MORE ON MOLD AND: Bacteria , E Coli (Bacteria) , Food , Food Contamination and Poisoning , Home Appliances , Kitchens , Mold , Poultry , Salmonella (Bacteria) , Vegetables

Questions Emerge About the Mold That Hurricane Sandy Left Behind

By SARAH MASLIN NIR

How to best tackle the problem of mold in homes flooded by the storm is a subject of debate in New York.

March 2, 2013, Saturday

MORE ON MOLD AND: Mold , Medicine and Health , Hurricane Sandy (2012) , Floods , New York City , New Jersey , Queens (NYC) , Allergies

Related Ads

What are Related Ads?

Mold Navigator

A list of resources from around the Web about mold as selected by researchers and editors of The New York Times.

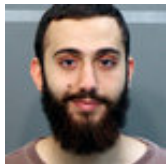

- Environmental Protection Agency on mold
- E.P.A.'s mold resources
- Centers for Disease Control on mold
- Washington State Department of Health on mold
- Mold Help Organization Web site
- Minnesota Department of Health on mold
- National Association of Home Builders on mold

- Most Emailed
- Most Viewed
- Recommended for you

1.

Gunman Kills 4 Marines at Military Site in Chattanooga

2.

Chattanooga Gunman Mohammad Youssuf Abdulazeez: 'Life Is Short and Bitter'

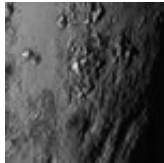

3.

Germany's Tone Grows Sharper in Greek Debt Crisis

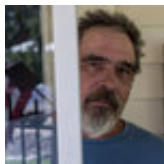

4.

WikiLeaks Shows a Saudi Obsession With Iran

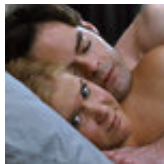

5.

New Horizons Reveals Ice Mountains on Pluto

6.

As Jade Helm 15 Military Exercise Begins, Texans Keep Watch 'Just in Case'

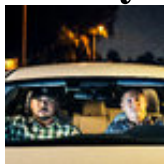

7.

Review: 'Trainwreck' Delivers the Full Amy Schumer Experience

8.

Guilty Verdict for James Holmes in Aurora Attack

9.

You Just Got Out of Prison. Now What?

10.

MOD RN LOV

The Wedding Toast I'll Never Give

Log in to discover more articles based on what you've read.

- What's This?
- Don't Show

© 2015 The New York Time Compan